THE STOCK MARKET.

A Much Better Feeling Existing on Wall Street.

THE EXCITEMENT DYING OUT.

No Trouble Feared on the Stock Exchange But a Number of Small Failures Are Looked for—The Secretary of the United States Treasury Comes to the Rescue.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The stock market opened excited but higher for the general list. Interest seems to be centered in the Villards and on tremendous sales the Northern Pacific and North American have advanced about two points over Tuesday night's closing figures.

Long before 10 o'clock, the regular opening hour, the galleries and floor were crowded with eager excited throngs, the people in the former attracted by the news of the excitement and apparently desirous to see the wreck-strewn floor. The men on the floor were brokers and anxious to begin business.

Although trading is strictly prohibited on the floor before and after the regular hours, scores of brokers were seen making entries in the notebooks after brief confabs with each other, the only difference between their actions then and after the opening hour being the absence of shouting and the usual gymnastic feats which accompany the transactions on the floor in business hours.

After 11 o'clock there was a steadier tone, and as the morning wore off there was a steady hardening of values. At 12 the advance ranged from 1/4 to 1/2 per cent., the latter in Pullman Palace.

Northern Pacific, the trusts and North American were the next strongest.

About 12:30 o'clock the failure of J. C. Walcott & Company was announced. This caused some reaction.

The transactions during the morning were very heavy. Up to 1 o'clock 446,670 shares had changed hands.

Just before the close of the market money loaned at 3 and 4 per cent. and the worst is believed to be over.

The Bank of North America was a heavy creditor at the clearing house yesterday. The bank will pay over to Nelson Cromwell, assignee of Decker, Howell & Company, large sums as differences on sales of securities held by the bank as collateral for loans made to that firm and sold in the market yesterday.

The failure of Walcott created little surprise, the house though a good one, had but a small interest in the market. The sales under the rule for account were mainly in odd lots and aggregated less than 2,000 shares, distributed among all the active specialties.

Mr. J. C. Walcott, the board member, was admitted in 1869, and the house was generally considered solid. It is not believed the failure will have any effect on the market.

Mr. Walcott was alone in business, although he continued the firm name since the retirement of Mr. Frank Dickinson some time ago. Mr. Walcott refuses to make a statement.

Benjamin True, a stock broker, has also failed. True is a small trader and the failure is of no importance.

Charles M. Whitney, Frank M. Larchar and Edwin S. Larchar, the three members of the brokerage firm of C. M. Whitney & Company, at 96 Broadway, which assigned yesterday, filed separate assignments to George H. Quintard, who is also the assignee of their firm.

Notwithstanding the announcement made early in the day that the North River bank had tided over their losses and made satisfactory arrangements with the clearing house, that institution closed its doors at 2:15 p. m., and posted a notice saying: "This bank has suspended temporarily."

Relief Comes from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The secretary of the treasury has authorized the assistant treasurer at San Francisco to receive deposits of funds from bankers desiring to transfer the same by telegraph to the assistant treasurer at New York. This is done to enable persons in New York having funds in San Francisco that are needed there to transfer them for immediate use in New York. The department will also accord this privilege to other points at which there are sub-treasuries, should it act as a means of affording any relief at the present time.

Not Satisfied With Present Wages.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—Nearly all the members of the general grievance committee of the employees of the Pennsylvania company, west of Pittsburgh, are in this city. The members represent all branches of the Pennsylvania company railway service west of Pittsburgh. The members of the different branches will report their grievances to the general grievance committee, who will discuss them and lay them before the Pennsylvania company officials for action. The principal question concerns a schedule of wages.

Senatorial Fight Begun.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 13.—The first Wyoming legislature met at Cheyenne yesterday and organized by electing A. P. Kellogg speaker of the house, and William Schnelger president of the senate. The fight for United States senator is now on. Ex-Delegate J. W. Carey has heretofore had a cinch on election but now there is some doubt of success. This is occasioned by the intention of ex-Governor William Warren to be a candidate.

Duponts Have Another Fire Loss.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 13.—A large barn belonging to the powder firm of the Duponts, near this city, was destroyed by fire, together with a large quantity of grain and hay, last night. Loss $14,000. This is the fourth barn the firm has lost by fire within a year.

PANIC IN A SCHOOL BUILDING.

Several Children Seriously Hurt While Escaping From a Fire.

MUNCIE, Ind., Nov. 13.—Tuesday afternoon some pupil went to the basement of the new Washington school building, in this city, and set fire to a small bunch of packing straw that soon sent a volume of smoke throughout the corridors and four large school-rooms above.

A hurried investigation by Professor Shewmaker revealed no danger from fire, but the hundreds of little pupils were not so easily pacified. The dashing out of one room by a boy was the signal, and an instant later the children were two and three deep in the short staircase, with their teachers screaming for them to stop, but their voices were drowned in the chorus of screams, and a panic ensued and was not checked until all were safely outside.

A number of little ones were quite seriously hurt. Harry, the 8-year-old son of James A. Ward, had one ear nearly torn off and his face badly cut and mashed. The fright was more easily brewed because of a serious accident that occurred at the building a few weeks since, when twenty little girls came very near being crushed to death under a large window occupying one wall of the room, when the frame was dashed in by the wind.

LOSING HIS NERVE.

Birchall Completely Broken Down in View of His Fate.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Nov. 13.—Birchall, it is said, has completely broken down and no longer wears his careless indifferent smile. Rev. Mr. Wade is with him much of the time now and is doing everything in his power to effect a change of heart, but so far without much encouragement.

Everything is being put in shape about the jail for the execution on Friday. The prisoners are clearing the yard and a general house cleaning is now going on. Mrs. Birchall, it is said, will bid her husband a last farewell to-night.

Dr. Ricj, the jail surgeon, visited the prisoner yesterday and found him in excellent health. The doctor states that the mental strain is making no impression on the constitution of the prisoner.

Woes of a Convict.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 13.—The governor has honored a requisition for the extradition and return to Indiana of James McNeal, wanted in Morgan county, that state, for grand larceny, committed in 1884. McNeal has just finished a term in the Ohio penitentiary for a similar crime, committed in Scioto county. He has been a model prisoner, and the prison authorities, believing in his reformation, had hoped that he would be allowed to return to the family he has acquired since the Indiana theft. McNeal has a brilliant criminal record in New York.

Another Dark Corner Tragedy.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Nov. 13.—John E. Gold, a farm hand, who resides at the Dark Corner, a small village about five miles southwest of this city, was found dead in a barn at that place early yesterday morning. It is thought he had been murdered, as marks of violence were on his body. This makes the eleventh person that has been found dead at or near the Dark Corner in the last eight years. Most of them, however, were suicides.

Summer Resort Hotel Burned.

CANTON, O., Nov. 13.—Fire late last night totally destroyed Lake Park hotel, summer resort owned by Anton Reymann, the Wheeling brewer. The hotel was a three story structure located at Myers lake, three miles from the city. The building, furniture and residence adjoining, together with the dancing pavilion, is a total loss. The inmates escaped without injury. The loss will reach $50,000; insurance probably $10,000.

Six Story Building Damaged by Fire.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Fire yesterday afternoon in the six story building, Nos. 252, 254 and 256 Pearl street, damaged stock and buildings to the extent of $50,000, distributed among various firms. The United States hotel, at Fulton and Pearl streets, was in great danger at one time, but escaped with a slight scorching. Traffic on the elevated road was blocked for an hour.

Stolen Mail Pouch Found.

A VESSEL WRECKED

Two Hundred and Forty-Seven Men Drowned.

ONLY THREE PEOPLE ESCAPED.

Her Majesty's Ship Serpent Goes to Pieces on the Rocks During a Severe Storm on the Spanish Coast Twenty Miles North of Cape Finisterre.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Her majesty's ship Serpent was wrecked Monday night twenty miles north of Cape Finisterre. Two hundred and forty-seven men were drowned. Only three escaped. The Serpent went on the rocks during a severe storm on the Spanish coast. A heavy mist prevailed at the time. It was impossible to obtain assistance from the shore, and the vessel remained in her helpless position until broken to pieces by the tremendous seas which swept over her. The crew were washed overboard in groups by the remorseless waves, and drowned or dashed to death amid the rocks.

The news of the disaster was conveyed to Corunna, a distance of sixty miles, over mountain roads, and when a relief corps was organized and sent to the scene of the wreck it was too late to be of any avail. The Serpent's crew proper consisted of 170 men. The remaining victims were relief crews which were being conveyed to other British men-of-war on the African station.

The Serpent was a cruiser of the third class. She was built at Davenport in 1888, at a cost of $605,000.

The admiralty officials maintain silence, and decline to be interviewed on the subject of the disaster. They possess no organization through which news of such occurrences would be transmitted to them in advance of press reports, if the officers of the ill-fated vessel did not survive. Though the reports of almost total annihilation of the Serpent's complement were at first regarded as too terrible for belief, the impression has now become general that the story is true. The news spread throughout England like wildfire, causing lamentation in hundreds of homes.

News of the Disaster Confirmed.

MADRID, Nov. 13.—An official telegram from Corunna states that her majesty's ship Serpent was wrecked off Cape Bucy, near the village of Camarin. Of the 276 men on board only three were saved. The bodies of only three of the victims have yet been washed ashore.

Three sailors who succeeded in swimming ashore from the wrecked British cruiser Serpent have arrived at Camarin. They express the belief that all the others on board were drowned.

A Nice Man is Lord Hamilton.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Lord George Hamilton, first lord of the admiralty, on rising to speak at a Conservative banquet, at Acton yesterday evening, said he was sorry to announce that just before he came there he received a telegram that her majesty's ship Serpent was lost on the coast of Spain, and he feared there had been great loss of life. The Serpent, he said, was one of our best cruisers and was a valuable vessel, with excellent officers and crew. He could not tell the cause of the disaster. The announcement caused a sensation, and it was evident that many of those present would have thought it proper to postpone the banquet; but no action being taken to that end, the entertainment proceeded, and after the guests had eaten and drank heartily Lord George Hamilton led off in the toasts with an unusually jolly speech, his rollicking humor provoking peal upon peal of a laughter.

The news of this affair soon reached the London clubs and excited much adverse comment. It is considered certain that Lord Hamilton's conduct will cause as much scandal against himself and the Tories as was aroused against Mr. Gladstone and his political adherents by the alleged presence of the Liberal premier at a theater on the evening of the day when Gordon's death was announced in the London papers.

When the news of the disaster to her majesty's ship Serpent reached Plymouth, the Duke of Edinburgh, who is one of the admirals of the navy, was attending a Patti concert. On being informed of what had occurred, he hastily left the hall and went to the newspaper offices where despatches in regard to the sad event were being received. He was deeply moved, and expressed his heartfelt sorrow for the victims and their unfortunate families. He did not return to hear the remainder of the concert, but proceeded directly to his residence. The morning papers commend his conduct in contrast to that of his superior officer, Lord George Hamilton.

The newspaper offices at Plymouth were besieged during the evening by crowds of relatives of the Serpent's crew. The lamentations of the women and children were pitiful. It is said that many of the Serpent's men have expressed fear of disaster before leaving Plymouth, but the cause of their apprehension cannot be learned.

The admiralty has wired the British consul, at Corunna, to send full details of the wreck and loss of life at once. The queen has sent a message to the Duke of Edinburgh asking for particulars, and expressing her sorrow for the lost men and their relatives.

PRINCETON, Ill., Nov. 13.—The largest grain elevator in the city was burned to the ground yesterday. J. H. Dole & Company, of Chicago, owned the building and it was valued at $30,000; insurance $10,000.

Cremated in a Burning Store.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Last night at Middleport a store belonging to Campton & Spalding, and occupied as a meat market, was burned. Joseph Spalding, about 35 years old, was burned to death.

THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

What the Organ of the Party Has to Say of Its Future.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 13.—In its issue of the week The Farmers' Advocate, the official organ of the Farmers' Alliance or People's party of Kansas, has the following to say of the future of the party:

We shall at once commence to marshal the hosts of the people for the conflict of 1892. In this great work there are many prejudices to overcome. Sectional lines must be abolished. Interests which are identical must be brought together and the combined forces of the agricultural and laboring classes must be consolidated against the forces of the corporations, monopolies, trusts, syndicates and moneyed aristocrats who have for years, feasted upon the substance of the people. When we say these forces are to be marshaled against the oppressors of the people we do not mean that the injustice which has characterized the corporate power of America is to be returned in kind.

The people simply ask for justice—that alone, and that, by the eternal, they will have. The coming contest, therefore, will not take place between the northern and southern sections of our country. The interests of the people of the west and south are identical and their political forces must be consolidated against the power of corporate greed. We may as well recognize this fact now as to permit our prejudices to postpone the day of its recognition.

The professional politicians of both parties both north and south, who have devoted their lives so assiduously to the promotion of corporate interests, recognize that this union of the two sections is the great danger that threatens the power of monopoly and they therefore constantly aim to keep alive the prejudices that have estranged them only to prey upon them and to maintain political supremacy by their alienation. It has been and is the holy mission of the Farmers' Alliance to subdue this sectional prejudice.

It is full time for this nation to become united. Did the hosts of the army in blue face shot and shell to maintain and perpetuate a more perfect union or to divide the nation into contending sections? If the former let us see to it that those of their comrades who survive may live to see a country redeemed and its liberties stored.

Down with all sectional lines. Away with all sectional prejudice. Let the fires of patriotism that still burn in the hearts of the people consume the prejudices of the past. Let one flag float over us and one spirit so perfectly pervade our hearts that we shall be able and willing to stand shoulder to shoulder in the great army that must make lasting conquest of the hosts of corporate greed that are feasting upon the stolen substance of the people.

REVOLUTION IN HONDURAS.

An Interview With the Late Secretary of the Legation in Central America.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Col. James R. Hosmer, late secretary of legation in Central America, and consul general at Guatemala, is in Washington. He left Guatemala on Oct. 15. In regard to the revolution in Honduras, Col. Hosmer said: "In all five of the republics there is a spirit that broods mischief. The feeling is strained now, and if the tension keeps up much longer a general explosion may follow. My individual opinion is that this state of disquietude is encouraged from abroad. I don't mean from this country, which now, as ever, through its state department, has labored to harmonize these people. The aim of this government has been to keep down all difficulties and to conserve our own interest by getting the Central American states to keep the peace."

"My opinion" is that about the best and quickest way to end the internecine strike of that region is to build the inter-colonial railway advocated by the Pan-American congress that met in this city. It will bring the people together and modernize them. Such an enterprise would be the greatest boon the Central Americans could acquire, and would doubtless give a stability to their institutions that, under the present conditions, seems hopeless.

The War in Honduras.

LA LIBERTAD, Nov. 13.—During Monday night Bogran and his forces, who were surrounded in one of the wards of Tegucigalpa, withdrew from the capital. They fought through the lines, and exactly where they have taken up their headquarters has not been ascertained. They are being pursued by soldiers sent after them by Gen. Loginos Sanchez, who is now in complete possession of the capital, and appears to be master of the situation. Sanchez will at once declare a de facto government and send representatives to Salvador, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, and possibly to Mexico and the United States.

DOWN AN EMBANKMENT.

A Passenger Train Wrecked but No One Was Killed.

LEBANON, Pa., Nov. 13.—The 5:15 p. m. passenger train going west on the Reading road jumped the track at a frog one mile east of Annville, and was thrown down an embankment. Three passenger cars and a baggage car were overturned, but although the train was crowded, no one was killed and only seven persons were hurt.

Benjamin Kernick, the conductor, and Frank Pollack, baggage master, both of Reading, were the most seriously injured. They were badly crushed but are not fatally injured. The others were but slightly hurt. All of the injured were brought here and sent on their journey in a later train.

Well Known Publisher Ill.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Daniel S. Appleton, of the well known publishing house of D. Appleton & Company, is very low at his home No. 8 University place. He is suffering from a stroke of apoplexy.

EVENING BULLETIN. DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY. ROSSER & MCCARTHY, Proprietors. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1890.

There are two candidates already in the field in Bourbon to represent that county in the next Legislature.

HALSTEAD says the late election was a Democratic disaster. Well, it was a "disaster" that hurt the Republicans worse than it did the Democrats.

The Democrats of the House of Representatives of the Fifty-second Congress will have a regular circus. And Reed and his little gang of Republicans will be a mighty small side-show.

The Sixth and Seventh Congressional districts are the only complete districts in the State that have thus far made returns to the Secretary of State. In the Sixth the vote stands: Dickerson, 11,310; Oneal, 6,801, and Vallandigham, 57 votes; Dickerson's plurality 4,509 votes. In the Seventh, or Ashland district, the vote stands: Breckinridge, 7,146, and Ford, 442; Breckinridge's majority, 6,704.

The Chicago packers of canned meats have decided to advance the price of such goods one-quarter of a cent a pound "to cover the additional cost of tin under the new tariff schedule," and the Kansas City packers have followed suit, of course. This is no "campaign lie,"—the election is over. When the consumers come to pay a quarter of a cent more for every pound of canned meats they use, they will see at a glance how Bill McKinley's bill benefits (?) them.

The progressive merchant of to-day owes his success to advertising; without it one might as well take down his sign and invite the Sheriff to walk in and close up his business. The wisest business men and the most successful ones are those who keep their names prominently before the public when trade is good as well as when it is dull. Constant and continuous advertising, gotten up in an attractive style, is like the constant dripping of water upon the flinty rock; slowly but surely an impression is made.—Printer's Record.

The recent political cyclone which almost swept the Republicans from power in this country has given some of the timid members of the G. O. P. a little more back-bone than they once had and they are making themselves heard every day or so now. Charles A. Pillsbury, of St. Paul, is one of these fellows. He is classed as the leading American miller. He says "the McKinley law is protection gone mad, and that if the law is not immediately repealed half the Republicans will desert the party forever." Didn't James G. Blaine say the bill would carry the Republican party to perdition?

John M. Palmer

Let every Democrat in Illinois take off his hat to John M. Palmer. He will be their next United States Senator. In his own State he is easily the first citizen from this day forth. His success is conceded. His greatness, his integrity and his patriotism are acknowledged. The first Democrat from Illinois to sit in the Federal Senate since the days of Douglas, the mantle of the great leader of Western Democracy could not have fallen on worthier shoulders.—Chicago Herald.

Farm Mortgages.

The following taken from the Bankers Monthly gives the total of farm mortgages carried in six of the principal States in the West: Kansas, $235,000,000; Indiana, $645,000,000; Iowa, $567,000,000; Michigan, $500,000,000; Wisconsin, $357,000,000; Ohio, $1,127,000,000. This makes an aggregate of $3,431,000,000; the interest on which at 6 per cent. amounts to more than $200,000,000. The entire yearly gold and silver production of the United States, it is calculated, is not enough to pay this interest.

SCHOOL NOTES.

SHANNON OR SLIPUP NO. 4.

This school is situated just on the edge of the village. The trustees are John T. Prather, John Jones and Grant Kilpatrick, all of whom have visited the school. Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Kilpatrick have visited the school and the people of the district seem interested. I wish they would manifest sufficient interest by keeping the house in better order. It is a good house but rapidly becoming dilapidated for want of repair.

Miss Sue Wright is the teacher and a lady of much experience in teaching, and is so much liked by the people of the district that she has taught this school four years, which speaks well. The scholars are diligent and orderly and deport themselves well. There are applications by scholars beyond the capacity for receiving them. More furniture and of a better kind would be of much advantage. The number of scholars is forty-five and could be larger. There is an interruption, at present, through all the tobacco-growing districts. Miss Wright has classes showing proficiency in reading, fourth reader, geography, arithmetic and other studies. G. W. BLATTERMAN, Supt.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Its El gant Quarters in the Taylor Building Thrown Open Last Evening.

The Maysville Commercial Club has fitted up cosy quarters on the second floor of Harry Taylor's new building, opposite the State National Bank.

The floor is covered with handsome Brussels carpet and the furniture is in keeping with the other appointments. It is doubtful whether any other organization of the kind in Kentucky can show more elegant quarters.

The room was formally opened last evening, the club holding a reception from 7 to 10 o'clock in celebration of the event. Cards had been issued, the invitations being restricted to the stockholders, the ministers and the members of the press and their ladies.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. LaRue Thomas, Mrs. W. B. Thomas J. J. Wood and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cochran, Jr., Mr. Jas. W. Fitzgerald, Rev. J. E. Wright and wife, Rev. D. D. Chapin, Judge Thomas R. Phister, Miss Amy Phister, Judge Wall, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sharp, John Doley, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Perrie, Circuit Clerk Ben D. Parry, W. W. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kackley, Miss Nellie Cady, Miss Lucy Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Hoeflich, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Galbraith, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Power, Dr. J. T. Fleming and wife, Miss Ida Edmonds, Miss Anna Atkinson, Mrs. Frank Laytham, Robert Hoeflich, Major Chenoweth and wife, P. P. Parker and wife, W. C. Miner, Miss Anna Shackelford, C. I. Rosenau, Will Trouts, Miss Sue Hays, Miss Brewer, John T. Parker, R. L. Browning, Ed P. Browning and wife, Mrs. Wallingford, Mrs. E. C. Phister and Mr. George W. Rogers.

Venue's orchestra was on hand and discoursed sweet music, while the guests discussed the refreshments that were served. President Thomas spoke briefly, cordially welcoming those who had responded to the invitations. He introduced Judge Phister, the orator of the evening, who was very happy in his remarks, and closed by hoping that the opening of the Commercial Club's quarters would mark the beginning of a new and more prosperous era in the history of Maysville's industries.

The Play To Night.

Our exchanges speak in terms of highest praise of the Golden Dramatic Company. They arrived at 10:10 a. m. this morning and are staying at the Central. They begin a three nights engagement to-night, presenting the great comedy entitled "Our Bachelors" which will be produced in an artistic manner, in keeping with the tastes and knowledge of Manager Martin Golden, who has had a life-time experience in the profession. For years the Golden's have been the leading dramatic company in the South and Southwest, and we bespeak for them great success in Maysville. The organization numbers twenty-one artists, and includes a first-class band and orchestra. Popular prices will prevail during the engagement—25, 35, and 50 cents. Matinee Saturday. Don't fail to see this company.

Special Delivery Stamps.

He was a stamp fiend, young and precocious. The plain American stamp had no interest for him. He was making a collection of foreign ones, and so when they sent him down to the postoffice for a package he did not pay much attention, but brought it home and handed it over, and skipped out to play tag. Next day they showed him a new sister who had arrived. He looked at her with some curiosity.

"Say, where did she come from?"

"Oh, from heaven."

"From heaven! I know. That was the package I brought from the postoffice yesterday, and I never knewed anything about it."

"Yes."

"Golly! why didn't you save me the stamps?"—San Francisco Chronicle.

Fatal Ending of a Game of Cards. MABLE, Minn., Nov. 13.—Last night C. M. Morgan and R. B. Fulton, of this village, while playing at cards got into a dispute. ## Opposition to Senator Vance.

RALIEGH, N. C., Nov. 13.—It has been generally believed that the Farmers' Alliance would support Senator Vance for re-election to the senate, but The Progressive Farmer, an Alliance organ published here, and edited by L. L. Polk, president of the Alliance, has declared its opposition to the senator. In The Farmer this week, two editorials are printed, one attacking Vance on his alleged objection to the sub-treasury scheme, and influencing the members to vote against him. It is rumored that Alliance Democrats will vote with the Republicans and elect Polk.

AT THE ALTAR.

The M. E. Church, South, the Scene of a Happy Matrimonial Event.

The Nuptials of County Attorney C. D. Newell and Miss Chloe Power Last Evening.

The M. E. Church, South, was the scene of a brilliant nuptial event last evening.

At 7:30 o'clock, the marriage of County Attorney Charles D. Newell and Miss Chloe A. Power was solemnized, Rev. J. E. Wright, pastor of the church, officiating.

The day had been dark and gloomy, but as the night came on the clouds cleared away and the bright stars smiled down on the union of two loving hearts.

The church was not near large enough to accommodate those who assembled to witness the nuptials. Half an hour before the appointed time, the pews were filled and all the available space taken. The decorations lent an additional charm to the scene.

The altar was hidden 'neath the flowers and potted plants, and the railing was entwined with vines and evergreens. There were palms, begonias, geraniums and many-colored chrysanthemums in profusion, that had been deftly arranged by fair hands. In the midst of these stood a large stand lamp, that, through its crimson shade, shed a rich light upon the scene.

Mr. H. A. Power, of Paris, (brother of the bride), Dr. C. C. Owens and Judge Thomas R. Phister, of this city, and John W. McCartney, Esq., of Flemingsburg, officiated as ushers. Mrs. Dr. Guthrie, of Aberdeen, presided at the organ, and in response to her deft touch the sweet strains of the wedding march pealed forth as the bridal party entered the room. In front of the altar, the high contracting parties were met by the minister, and the words were soon pronounced that made the twain husband and wife. The ceremony closed with an invocation for heaven's blessings upon the union.

Immediately after the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. James E. Threlkeld, where a short time was spent in viewing the many elegant presents the couple received. Mr. and Mrs. Newell left on the eastbound F. F. V. at 9 o'clock. On their return, they will be at home at Mrs. Perrie's on Sutton street.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Power, and is one of the fairest of Kentucky's fair women. Her costume was a rich double-corded faille silk, with Valenciennes lace trimmings. The groom is to be congratulated on having won one so lovely and accomplished for his life companion. He is one of the most popular and most promising members of the Mason Bar, at present County Attorney and City Prosecutor.

THE BULLETIN joins in the hearty congratulations to the groom and unites with their many friends in wishing a future of uninterrupted happiness and prosperity for him and his lovely bride.

The Golden Troupe.

Says the Carlisle Mercury: "The Golden Troupe, which played three nights in this city this week, is one of the best companies on the road, and wherever it may go the people should give it a large patronage. In this day of cheap, barnstorming parties, it is a rare treat to have one's town visited by such an organization of real artists as Mr. Golden has gathered about him. The magnificent band is of itself worthy of hearty support, and if it only executed a selection or two lovers of good music would be repaid for attending. Mr. Golden is not only a successful manager, but he is an actor of merit, and a high gentleman."

This company commences a three-nights' engagement at opera house this evening. Popular prices—25, 35 and 50 cents.

Lectures.

Those interested in the literary advancement of the city will be pleased to know that there will be at least three lectures at the High School during the winter. Mr. Leon H. Vincent, who charmed an intelligent audience here in February has been employed, and, though his date is not fixed, his coming is assured. Besides the great advantage done by the lectures last winter in exciting and stimulating a taste for literature, the pupils of the High School are deriving untold benefit from the Encyclopedia Britannica which is now in the building as a reward of those interested in the work.

Chambers purchased his own, his wife's and his son's freedom from his master just before the emancipation proclamation was issued. He is a sprightly man for his years, says the Fleming Gazette.

Glenn paid a like sum for the one he bought, while Mr. W. L. Schatzmann paid $2,050 for the one adjoining. Mr. A. M. J. Cochran paid $2,500 for the Front street house.

THE Lebanon, O., Patriot says: "Agents for a range are perambulating the country, and it stands people in hand to be on their guard, when they make contracts with such men, of whom they know nothing. If we were asked for advice on such matters we would say, buy of your home dealers, of whom you get just as good if not better goods for the money."

Tired of Living.

Mrs. Francis Reed, a widow who was employed at the Maysville Cotton Mills, attempted to commit suicide last evening by taking a large quantity of arsenic.

Dr. Phillips was hastily summoned, and by prompt work with a stomach-pump saved the woman's life. She has several children. Her oldest son had a quarrel yesterday afternoon and talked of leaving home. This worried her and she concluded to end her existence by taking the deadly drug. She said she was tired of living.

STORY OF ROBBERY AND MURDER

Burglars Plunder a House, and, on Being Discovered, Murdered an Old Woman and Fatally Beat a Man—Other Foreign Dispatches.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—A story of robbery and murder comes from the town of Arge, not far from Roubaix, in the department of Nord. Tuesday night burglars broke into the house of the parish cure there and proceeded to plunder the place. The house keeper, a woman of 65, was aroused by the noise made by the intruders and endeavored to raise an alarm, but her cries were quickly suppressed by the burglars, who struck her repeatedly with some blunt instrument and left her dead upon the floor.

The cure, who had been awakened by the woman's cries, hurried to her assistance, but was met by the miscreants and savagely assaulted. Yesterday morning the unfortunate cure was found in a dying condition, with his skull fractured. After securing everything of value that they could carry with them, the burglars made their escape, and at last accounts had not been captured.

Admits His Responsibility.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The signal man whose carelessness caused the terrible accident on the Great Western railway, near Lantoun early yesterday morning, admits his full culpability and will make no attempt to evade the penalty of his fatal neglect. This is the first serious accident on the Great Western since 1874. The line is splendidly managed, and yesterday morning's disaster was made possible only through the most incredible disregard of stringent rules by an employee. The special passenger train, which had the right of way, was running a mile a minute when it crashed into the misplaced goods train, and the shock was terrific.

Persecuted Jews.

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—Two hundred Jews who were expelled from Russia have arrived in Berlin on their way to the United States. They declare that they consider themselves fortunate in getting away from a country where they were subjected to so much persecution. Many Jews who attempt to emigrate are prevented. The action of the police in this matter is inexplicable and seems wholly capricious. One family in a village will be notified to leave the country; a family of relatives or friends who prepare to accompany the exiles will be ordered to remain home, and cannot procure passports.

Newfoundland Fisheries.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The St. James Gazette states that negotiations are now in progress between the governments of Great Britain and France for a settlement of the Newfoundland fisheries question, on the basis of a surrender by France of her claim to any part of the Newfoundland shore. In return for this concession France is to be compensated by the cession to her of one of the British colonies in West Africa, possibly Gambia. A further condition to the settlement must be the renunciation by Newfoundland of the bait act.

Professor Koch's Liberality.

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—Professor Koch will publish to the world on Saturday the composition of his cure for consumption. Any physician who desires further information as to details may thereafter apply to Dr. Cornet, Professor Koch's assistant, who has established hospitals for the treatment of home and foreign patients. Professor Koch will now begin experimenting for a cure of diphtheria.

The Mahdi's Ranks Divided.

Tobacco Smoke.

MADRID, Nov. 13.—By the fire at the tobacco factory yesterday tobacco valued at $60,000 was destroyed and three persons were injured.

WARNED BY THE MAFIA.

Two Italians in St. Louis Receive Threatening Letters.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13.—Joseph Gozzolo and Antonio Capestio received letters from New Orleans threatening the life of the former, which they have turned over to the police. Capestio's letter states that, by order of the Mafia, his relative, Gozzolo, has been tried and found guilty, and that he will receive but one more warning.

Gozzolo's letter stated that he had been sentenced by the Mafia to death, and that he had better prepare for it as he would receive no further warning. Gozzolo says he had trouble with a Sicilian a few years ago, who threatened to invoke the Mafia, and this is the only excuse he knows for the threat.

Grew Despondent and Suicided.

OBERLIN, O., Nov. 13.—H. J. King, father of H. C. King, professor of mathematics in Oberlin college, committed suicide yesterday morning by shooting himself through the heart. He was about 65 years old and was formerly treasurer of Hillsdale Seminary and in later years assistant treasurer of Oberlin. Despondency is said to have been the cause of the rash act.

WITH BALLOONS AND THINGS.

How Dr. Nansen Will Equip for His Pursuit of the Pole.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Dr. Nansen, who crossed Greenland a couple of years ago, has been writing further details of his plans for reaching the North Pole, which he will start to carry out in the spring of 1892.

He says he expects to be able to pass through Behring strait in June. He anticipates little difficulty in getting his small vessel as far west as the new Siberian islands. He believes that August or the beginning of September will be the most favorable time for pushing north.

He intends to use a small captive balloon in which he can ascend a few hundred feet for the purpose of studying the condition of things for a large distance around him. He hopes to get into loose ice and make the journey rapidly, at least as far north as Bennett island. When he reaches the permanent ice cap he will simply look for the best place to enter it, and will then wait for the ice to carry him whither it will.

He thinks the chances are good that he will be carried across the pole or very near it, and into the sea between Spitzbergen and Greenland. If it is summer when he arrives there he thinks he will probably get into open water near latitude 80 degrees north. If it is winter, however, he is likely to drift south along the east coast of Greenland and come out somewhere the following summer.

If the ice floes crush his ship Dr. Nansen thinks there is still an excellent chance that he will get through all right. His party, in that event, will live on an ice floe instead of in the cabin on ship board. They will have warm tents made of a double thickness of canvas or similar stuff, well filled with reindeer hair.

Such tents will be very warm and also very light. It is well known that several ship parties, including the Hansa crew and a part of the crew from the American exploring vessel Polar, drifted hundreds of miles on the ice and finally reached a place of safety. Dr. Nansen's book on his trip across Greenland is soon to appear. It will be in two volumes and will have a large number of illustrations.

During the trip Dr. Nansen took over 200 photographs and for the first time the world will have an opportunity of seeing just what the ice-clad interior of Greenland looks like. He speaks English fairly well, but would not trust himself to write his book in English, and it has therefore been translated from the Norwegian tongue.

Failed to Get Work and Suicided.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—William R. Gray came to Washington from Pennsylvania in September last, with the intention of doing newspaper work, but his endeavors to secure a position did not meet with success. He became melancholy, and last Thursday shot himself. He died that morning, and the facts in the case have just leaked out. Gray was 21 years old.

Players' League Adjourns.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 13.—The Players' League convention has adjourned, subject to the call of the chair. The conference committee go to New York to consult with the National League. The New York people will stay in, unless the National League does business with everybody.

Sea Captain Washed Overboard.

FEATHER POINT, Que., Nov. 13.—The Royal mail steamship Vancouver arrived inwards from Liverpool yesterday and reported that Capt. Lindall, her commander, was washed overboard and drowned on Friday morning last during a heavy storm which swept the decks clear. Fearfully rough weather was experienced.

OLATHE, Kan., Nov. 13.—Hon. D. G. Campbell, of Merriam, this county, was run over and instantly killed by a south-bound train on the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis railroad yesterday. Mr. Campbell was a prominent temperance lecturer of this state and has represented his county three terms, from 1870 to 1876 in the state legislature. He was 70 years of age.
